Presidents Message

Have a great June!
Big Thanks
Jillian and Gregg Simon for all their hard work setting up our May Table Top. I would also like to thank Jerry Houseman, Jack Emlay, Chuck Catilus, Larry
Hughes, Mike Stinson, Jon Johnson, and all other members I may have not mentioned.
Thanks again to our Chapter Supporters for making Our May Table
Top a success!

As we move forward in our busy season this June we need to drink lots of water and sports drinks to keep hydrated! It is recommend eight 8-
ounce glasses of water per day. Since we work outside we may need more! Keep in mind you don't want to overhydrate either and the symptoms are similar. Dehydration symptoms are dry, sticky mouth, tiredness, dry skin, headache, extreme thirst, Too much fluid can lead to

hyponatremia, which is when sodium in blood becomes too diluted.
Overhydrating
Symptoms include
confusion, headaches,
nausea and bloating.
Working in the heat we all know is hard and can be dangerous if we are not prepared. Start your service and repairs as early as you can. The sooner you can start the sooner you can stop and get out of the heat. Wear breathable shirts, shorts, shoes. Sun hats work to cool as well. There are also products at Home Depot and Lowes to help keep you cool!

'Til next time, keep it clear.
Scott Houseman
President

Santa's Summer Get-Away

By Shaleen Stevenson

Save $$ and Have Fun!

Santa's Summer Getaway is fast approaching -- September 16-18, 2016. If you have been with us before, you know that it is a great family time with lots of relaxation, food and fun and who couldn't use that at the end of the busy pool season? If you have not been with us before, this will be a great year to join us. There's lots of water in the lake, plus Pinewood Derby on Saturday, canoeing and boating both days, campfires at night -- what's not to love?

June is the last meeting where you can sign up and save $5 per adult camper on the registration fee. Its a great deal even without the discount. $35 per adult and $20 per child pays for your campsite, Friday and Saturday dinner, Saturday and Sunday breakfast, plus crafts and other activities. On top of that take a $5 discount on the adult price and tell me where else you can have so much fun for so little money!

Use the enclosed registration form today and be included in the fun!!
